3. THE NEW FRAMEWORK AGREEMENT

The key terms of the New Framework Agreement are as follows:

Parties to the New Framework Agreement

The Company, the Baishawan Branch (as storage services provider), and Sinopec Reserve (to supervise and manage the strict compliance with the New Framework Agreement by the Baishawan Branch and to assist the Company on using tanks and related matters).

Subject Matter and Term of the New Framework Agreement

The New Framework Agreement is expected to be signed before 31 December 2025.

Under the New Framework Agreement, the Baishawan Branch shall provide crude oil storage services to the Company for a one-year term, which will commence on 1 January 2026 and expire on 31 December 2026.

Storage Fees

The expected storage fees payable by the Company to the Baishawan Branch in 2026 are RMB114 million (inclusive of value-added tax). The storage fees shall be paid monthly. The Company shall check the amount of storage fees of the current month with the Baishawan Branch before the 20th day of each month.

Other Expenses

The Company shall arrange insurance on its own for oil products stored in the leased storage tanks and shall bear the corresponding insurance costs. Sinopec Reserve is responsible for entrusting an independent commodity inspection company with relevant qualifications to carry out independent commodity inspection business for the Company and bear relevant commodity inspection fees.

Historical Transaction Amounts and Annual Caps

Period	Products or services	Connected parties	Annual Caps (RMB million)	Actual amount incurred (RMB million)
For the year ended 31 December 2024	crude oil storage services	provided by Sinopec Reserve and	114	114
For the period ended 30 September 2025		Baishawan Branch to the Group	114	85.5

* The Annual Caps and actual amounts incurred in the above table include value-added tax.

Annual Cap

The aggregate annual transaction amounts payable by the Company to the Baishawan Branch for 2026 shall not exceed RMB114 million (inclusive of value-added tax).

4. CALCULATION BASIS OF THE ANNUAL CAP

The Company estimated the Annual Cap for storage service fees with reference to transaction costs in previous years and compared it with the price quoted by independent third parties with socialized operations. After comparison, the unit price per cubic meters of oil storage tanks corresponding to the aggregate amount under the New Framework Agreement is not higher than the price quoted by independent third parties.

5. REASONS FOR AND BENEFITS OF ENTERING INTO THE NEW FRAMEWORK AGREEMENT

The Company has reinforced its production and management in recent years in order to maximize efficiency. Through the New Framework Agreement, the Company will be able to simplify the process of temporary adjustment in crude oil deployment and transportation in accordance with its operational needs and ensure the stable operation of its facilities. At the same time, the New Framework Agreement can increase the Company's flexibility of crude oil deployment and expand the room for optimizing crude oil feedstock.

The Board (including independent non-executive Directors) is of the view that the terms of the New Framework Agreement and the Annual Cap for the year ending 31 December 2026 are entered into in the usual and ordinary course of business on common commercial terms, are fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and its Shareholders as a whole. The New Framework Agreement and the transaction thereunder are governed by fair, equitable and open pricing principles. It will not adversely affect the Company's future financial situation or operating results, nor will it cause reliance on the connected parties or affect the Company's independence.

6. IMPLICATION UNDER THE HONG KONG LISTING RULES AND THE SHANGHAI LISTING RULES

In accordance with Rule 14A.76(2) of the Hong Kong Listing Rules, as one or more of the applicable percentage ratios (as defined in the Hong Kong Listing Rules) in respect of the Annual Cap for the New Framework Agreement will exceed 0.1% but will be less than 5%, the transaction under the New Framework Agreement is subject to the reporting and announcement requirements, but is exempted from the circular and independent Shareholders' approval requirements under Chapter 14A of the Hong Kong Listing Rules. In accordance with Rule 6.3.7 of the Shanghai Listing Rules, the transaction under the New Framework Agreement is not subject to approval at general meeting of the Company.

7. BOARD APPROVAL

The Company convened the 15th special meeting of independent Directors of the eleventh session of the Board on 15 December 2025. All the independent non-executive Directors including Mr. Tang Song, Mr. Chen Haifeng, Mr. Yang Jun, Ms. Zhou Ying and Mr. Huang Jiangdong agreed on the New Framework Agreement and the Annual Cap thereunder for the year ending 31 December 2026, and approved to submit the relevant resolution to the Board for consideration.

The Company convened the 22nd meeting of the eleventh session of the Board on 16 December 2025. The Board approved the New Framework Agreement and the Annual Cap thereunder for the year ending 31 December 2026. The Directors, Mr. Guo Xiaojun, Mr. Du Jun and Mr. Xie Zhenglin, due to their positions held in the connected persons of the Company, are deemed to be interested in the relevant transaction and therefore abstained from voting at the meeting of the Board.

8. GENERAL INFORMATION
